

About the program:

Employees of cooperatives play a critical role in the success of cooperatives. It is important for every employee to know what makes cooperatives different from other forms of business and why cooperatives were formed to meet the economic needs of their member-owners.

About the instructor:

Bob Cohen has spent more than a decade educating people about cooperatives. He teaches the course Introduction to Cooperatives at The Ohio State University and has given workshops and presentations regarding cooperatives in 20 states and six foreign countries.

About the council:

The Tennessee Council of Cooperatives was organized in 1982 to promote and advance cooperatives throughout the state. Its membership consists of cooperatives and associations in five sectors:

Dairy cooperatives
Farm credit organizations
Rural electric and telephone cooperatives
Farm Bureau Federation
Other service and marketing cooperatives.
